

WINTER THEATRE ARTS CAMP

Junie B Jones

You are invited to be in the cast of Junie B Jones Jr during Hamilton-Gibson Productions' Winter Theatre Arts Camp for kids in grades 3-9

All rehearsals and performances are at the Coolidge Theatre, Deane Center, Wellsboro

Camp meets:

February 14, 15, 16, 19, 21, 22, 23, 26, 28, 29, March 1, 4, 6, 7 - Sessions from 3:45-5:30pm

Performances: Friday, March 8 at 7:00pm, public performance

Saturday, March 9 at 7:00pm, public performance

[Note: there may be one school-time performance]

Rehearsals - You are expected to be at all scheduled rehearsals. The basic times are 3:45-5:30. Be very clear on your audition sheet to indicate any dates or times you absolutely cannot attend rehearsals. (It is possible that you will not be cast if you need to miss rehearsals.)

Responsibilities

Line/song memorization. You will be expected to memorize lines/songs on your own.

Communication. You are expected to let the director know if there are any concerns, questions, conflicts of schedule etc.

Direct-ability. You are expected to allow yourself to be directed.

Costumes. You will be expected to provide most of your own contemporary costume, including soft-soled shoes.

Rehearsal behavior. Respectful (of others; of facility), attentive, positive, committed.

Finances:

The Winter Theatre Arts Camp is offered at no cost to campers due to a generous grant from UPMC.

Each camper receives a tee shirt, script, rehearsal cd, instruction. The cost for the public performances is Pay-What-You-Can.

Though the cast can be fairly large, we may not be able to cast everyone who auditions. Behavioral issues, lack of motivation or cooperation may result in a student being released from the opportunity for participation. Also, if there are too many conflicts with rehearsal times, it is likely the student will not be able to participate.

The audition form on the back of this sheet must be completed and signed by a parent/guardian and either turned in at the sign-up/audition or sent or scanned to the addresses below. No one will be auditioned without parental permission.
